

LITERARY ITEMS.

Miss Isa Craig, the Scottish poetess whose Ode received at the Burns Centenary Festival, in 1859, received the first prize of 500 dollars competitors, and who has been for some time past Assistant Secretary of the National Social Science Association, recently resigned her office on the occasion of her marriage. The members of the Association have presented her with a silver tea-service and silver, suitably inscribed. Miss Craig was born in Edinburgh, and is 26 years of age. She published a volume of "Poems by Isa" in 1859, and has been a contributor to periodical literature. It is proposed to be this lady a New-York morning paper to record the other day by the very disrespectful application of "The Craig."
